Dear Friends,

Join fellow Mount Zion members and me as we get to know each other on an intimate journey to the land of Israel. No experience has the power to bring Judaism to life like a trip to Israel. And no vacation could offer greater adventure. We will walk the ancient cities our ancestors walked, stand on the breathtaking fortress atop Masada, visit with Israelis in our partnership regions, relax at the Dead Sea, and so much more!

Whether you are a first-timer or a veteran traveler, single or a couple or a family with kids, I promise you this will be twelve days you'll never forget. We will have many opportunities prior to departure to gather together to get to know each other, and to study the land and people of Israel. So join me for a journey that will open your mind, touch your heart, and renew your spirit!

Rabbi Larry Hoffman writes:

We may begin as tourists or even as wary pilgrims in the making, hesitant to trash our Western-style sense of being in control. We may go only marginally invested in the story we are about to experience---certainly not expecting to kiss the Wall, actually pray at someone's tomb, or dip our hands into the soil where Isaac dug his wells and modern day chalutzim [pioneers] made the desert bloom. But we may be surprised. The land of Israel may have its own way upon us. We learn to see its sites, not just as sights, to appreciate its enduring sacred character, to know it for what it is: the land toward which we have been heading all our lives.

Highlights:

- Five days in Jerusalem, three in Tel Aviv, three in the Galilee
- Visit the hidden munitions factory in a kibbutz, the Ayalon Institute
- Jeep tour of the Golan
- Partnership 2000 Program in Tiberias
- Meeting with settlers in Gush Etzion
- Rafting on the Jordan River
- Meeting with an IDF officer
- Visit to the Better Places Visitors' Center to learn about the car of the future
- Optional Study Sessions in Jerusalem
