

How our Adult Education Program is Organized

Our adult education offerings are divided into three categories, corresponding to the three core values of Mount Zion's vision:

TORAH תורה

Life-long Learning ♦ Sacred Texts ♦ Hebrew

In this category, you will find courses, lectures, and discussions on Torah and other sacred Jewish literature. You will also find lessons at all levels in the Hebrew language through which we are best able to access these sacred texts.

AVODAH עבודה

Worship ♦ Liturgy ♦ Spirituality

Here you will find classes covering topics on religion and spirituality, including liturgy, life-cycles, theology, holiday rituals, and Jewish music and chanting. Through these offerings, we enrich our spirituality and the meaning of our worship services.

GEMILUT CHASADIM גמילות חסדים

Acts of Loving Kindness and Justice ♦ Social Action ♦ Community Issues ♦ Culture & Israel

In this grouping, we have gathered a variety of learning experiences from the treasure trove of Jewish culture, history, politics, and art, seeking ways to better connect to one another, to our spiritual home in Israel, and to the American society in which we live.

To register for any class, go to mzion.org or contact Julie at jbeckman@mzion.org

Torah at the Center...

Every week, three times to study Torah.
Stop by anytime.
No experience/background necessary.

Torah Mondays

Rabbi Esther Adler

12:00-1:00 p.m. (ongoing)

Mount Zion Temple

Take a lunch break from your busy life and join this Torah discussion. We read through the text and commentaries, and respond with our own experiences, ideas, and events of the day to illuminate the intricate relationships that evolved among our ancestors. We are currently studying the weekly Haftarah portions.

Bring Your Lunch!

Thursday: Genesis with Rashi

Rabbi Adam Stock Spilker

12:00 - 1:00 p.m. (ongoing)

220 S. 6th St., Suite 1800 Minneapolis (US Bank Building)

Fill your spirit with food for the soul over lunch in a downtown conference room. Study the book of Genesis the way it has been studied for centuries, with the great commentator Rashi as our guide. Come once or regularly and enjoy the camaraderie of a chevruta, the Talmudic way of learning with one's friends and colleagues.

Bring Your Lunch!

Shabbat-Open Torah Study

Studying the weekly Torah portions with our Rabbis.

9:00 - 10:00 a.m. (ongoing)

Mount Zion Temple

This weekly study group is open to regular attendees and those who are able to drop in once or periodically -- people of all ages, knowledge and background. Through reading and discussion of the weekly parashah/Torah portion, participants will learn the stories of Torah and make them come alive in their own lives.

Ready to take a positive step in your life?

- Explore ways to bring Jewish traditions into your home in a judgement-free class.
- Hear from others about their decisions or practices.
- Make practical (small) decisions about holidays, values, and even artwork to hang on your walls.
- This open, guided class is for interfaith, same-faith, mixed roots, or single households.

What does it mean to have a “Jewish” home? This three-part class is for couples or single heads of households, who want an open and structured way to reflect. The emphasis of the class will be on making choices that are right for you after study and discussion on key questions of Jewish life. Examples: What Jewish values will we emphasize? What books and periodicals and art will be in our home? What rituals will we incorporate? What will Shabbat look like in our home?

MUSSAR AT MOUNT ZION

2018-19 / 5779

The World of Mussar is opening before you ... and you are invited to enter.

Mussar may best be described as “Jewish spiritual ethics” and has been practiced for centuries by people who sought to cultivate and strengthen the qualities of the inner mensch. There are no pre-requisites nor is Hebrew required.

Come join in small group study as we explore Jewish teachings on humility, gratitude, equanimity, patience, order, and honor among others – and discover how we can improve these qualities in our own life. Conversations will be in a safe, supportive, exciting, and collaborative environment.

NEW TO MUSSAR?

A One-Time Intro: A Taste of Mussar with Sara Lynn Newberger - Wed., Sept. 26, at 11:00 am at the St. Paul JCC. RSVP to Sara.lynn@ttsp.org.

READY TO DIVE DEEPER? FOR NEW AND RETURNING STUDENTS

A Season of Mussar I with Rabbi Heidi Waldmann – A 14 session program with materials from The Mussar Institute that explores the middot (values) in depth through practices, texts, and conversation.

When? Tuesday evenings (7-9 pm) at Mount Zion Temple - (7-9 pm) at Mount Zion Temple Oct 23; then 1st and 3rd Tuesdays Nov-Dec; and 2nd and 4th Tuesdays Jan-May 14.

Rabbi Waldmann, a member of Mount Zion, led a Reform Congregation in Plattsburgh, NY for three years followed by eight years as Staff Chaplain at Indiana University Health North Hospital.

Cost: Tuition is $250 for MZ members ($300 for the public). Financial support is available from our clergy. Sign up at mzion.org.

INTERESTED IN ANOTHER APPROACH?

FOR NEW & RETURNING STUDENTS – CO-SPONSORED BY HINEINI, ST. PAUL JCC, MOUNT ZION, AND BETH JACOB

Mindful Mussar Va'adot with Sara Lynn Newberger – Through an exploration of mindfulness practices, Jewish texts from the Institute for Jewish Spirituality, group conversation, and Mussar practices, you will explore soul traits like humility and kindness and consider ways to expand their presence in your life.

When? Mondays, beginning Oct 15, 7:00-9:00 pm at Beth Jacob OR Wednesdays, beginning 17, 11:00 am - 1:00 pm at St. Paul JCC.

Both groups will be 14 sessions, every other week, Oct-May.

Sara Lynn Newberger is director of Hineni-Adult Jewish Learning and Contemplative Practices: Talmud Torah of St. Paul

Cost: Tuition for either of the classes is $300 or $250 for Hineni Supporters and Beth Jacob, Mount Zion or JCC members. Register at ttsp.org. Financial support is available from Hineni and from our clergy.

FIVE YEARS OF MUSSAR STUDY!

Adventures in Mussar - A continuing va'ad with Julie Dean. Uptown Sundays 4-6pm.

Begins Nov. 18. Cost: $250. Financial support is available from our clergy. Sign up at mzion.org.

Mount Zion's Year-long Focus (Kivvun) on Israel

Wrestling with our Relationship with Israel

In Hebrew, Israel is “Yisrael” which means “to wrestle with God.” Israel refers to four separate arenas: a people, a land, a country (state), and a government.

Our purpose is to inspire אהבת ישראל ahavat Yisrael, a love for the people, land, and country of Israel, and to help congregants articulate their views of the government of Israel and current events.

We have four goals:

- 1. We will help our members feel capable of speaking about Israel in a safe environment of empathetic thinking and open dialogue.
- 2. We will teach the history and contemporary cultures of Israel.
  - We will focus on the history of Zionism, structure of the Israeli political system, Jewish and Palestinian narratives of the past, and the cultures of all of Israel's citizens.
  - In the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, we will emphasize learning the values behind different positions (e.g., justice, self-preservation, peace, compromise, land, etc.) and unpack the terms used (e.g., why is the same land called “Disputed Territories”, “Occupation”, “Judea-Samaria”, “West Bank”, and “Palestine”?).
- 3. We will advocate for religious pluralism in Israel.
- 4. We will strengthen our connections with our partner synagogues in Modiin and Rosh HaAyin and our Federation partnership region, Sovev Kinneret.

Israel's Milestones and Their Meanings

The Legacy of the Past and the Challenge of the Future

A special iEngage Video Lecture Series to mark 50 years since the Six Day War and 70 years since Israel's establishment.

Memory is a central element in defining modern Jewish identity. As we look to Israel's future, we need to engage anew with our past and explore its meanings and consequences. Through the consideration of major historic moments, this iEngage series grapples with the different ideas and values that shape the meaning of modern Israel, Zionism, and Jewish identity today.

This innovative course explores the pivotal events of 1947 and 1967 — following the 1917 Balfour Declaration — as key moments when Zionism unleashed new thinking about the meaning of Jewishness for generations to come. The course engages participants in an open and pluralistic discussion about issues of Jewish identity, peoplehood, ethics and theology as they relate to nationhood, land, sovereignty, Jerusalem, occupation, and moral red lines.

Learning Israel's History through Text and Videos of Experts
MONDAY NIGHTS, 7-9 taught by Rabbi Adam Stock Spilker

- Oct 8 - 1917 - Balfour Declaration: The Idea of a Homeland for the Jewish People
- Oct 29 - 1947 - The United Nations Partition Plan: The Jews in the World
- Nov 12 - 1967 - The Six Day War: Power, Land and God
- Nov 26 - Judea and Samaria: Occupation or Liberation?
- Jan 14 - One State, Two States: Moral Red Lines
- Jan 26 - Jerusalem of God, Prayer and Peoplehood

COST: $36/Mount Zion members; $72/Public; Tuition is for the entire series.
Each session is a stand-alone class; please attend as many as you are able.

Roots of Zionism in the 19th Century

Sept 26-Dec 12

Zionism was not born in the 19th century but a new political movement was.

After the Romans exiled the Jews from Jerusalem in 70 CE and many continued a dispersion around the world, over the next two millennia only small numbers of Jews remained and returned to eretz Yisrael. There was a major influx of Jews in the 1500s after the Spanish Expulsion, but for the most part, most diaspora Jews trusted in a divinely sent Messiah to one day return them to Zion, keeping Zion alive in daily prayer and in religious, cultural expression.

Then, in the 19th century, Western political and intellectual revolutions awakened a new political awareness among European Jews. Persecution and nationalism in many countries also made life untenable for Jewish life. Some banded together to form a nationalist political movement—Zionism—to regain political independence in a common homeland. This course delves into the emergence, development, and expansion of Zionism during the 1800s.

Arab-Israeli Conflict through Literature Since 1917

Jan 9-Feb 27

This course focuses on the varied ways that Israeli Jews, Israeli Arabs, Palestinians, and Western scholars have experienced and conceptualized the Arab-Israeli conflict. Unlike a typical history class, we will emphasize texts by novelists, poets, and other literary writers. This approach assumes that literary writers, by dint of their disciplines, can sometimes access human experience with greater nuance, subtlety, and depth, than scholars using academic disciplines.

Israeli Democracy and the Political System in Israel since 1948

Mar 6-May 15

Despite multiple wars and constant challenges since its founding in 1948, Israel remains the Middle East's only continuously functional democracy. This course will describe and explain Israel's multi-party, parliamentary system and its historical roots in Mandatory Palestine.

We will explore several challenges that democracy faces in Israel's unique circumstances, including:

- Israel is a Jewish State. How does Israel reconcile the secular principle of rule-of-law in a Western democracy with pressures to incorporate Halacha, religious Jewish law, into governance? How should Israel address differing answers to "Who is a Jew?"
- Israel rapidly absorbed large waves of Jews from differing diasporas with radically different cultures and views of governance. How does Israel forge into one nation diverse populations from such places as Algeria, Yemen, Russia, Ethiopia, and Germany?
- Israel has always had a large Arab population. How have they fared in a Jewish state? How does Israel over time preserve its pluralistic identity? Might West Bank settlements over time threaten or compromise Israel's democratic principles?

Professor Arie Zmora

Arie Zmora is a native of Israel, holding BA and MA degrees from The Hebrew University, Jerusalem in History and International Relations; MPhil in European History from The Johns Hopkins University; PhD in European History from University of Maryland, College Park. Dr. Zmora has taught over the past eighteen years in area colleges and universities wide variety of classes on European and Middle East (Hamline University, Macalester College, University of Minnesota, Twin Cities, Saint Cloud State University, University of Wisconsin, River Falls). For over a decade (2001-13), Dr. Zmora was co-director of Middle East Exchange Programs funded by the US Department of State at Hamline University with participation of Israeli, Palestinian, Jordanian, and Lebanese partners.

The Other Peace Process
Inter-religious Dialogue in the Service of Peace
 Sunday, November 11 at 1:00 pm

Rabbi Dr. Ron Kronish

Founder and long-time Director of the Interreligious Coordinating Council in Israel (ICCI)
 The David Cobin Memorial Lecture

Rabbi Ron Kronish organizer, activist, writer, teacher, brings with him years of experience working in interfaith and peace-building efforts in Israel. His articles can be found at ronkronish.com.

David Cobin, in addition to being an active participant in Jewish life in St. Paul, was for 33 years a Professor of Law at Hamline University School of Law. Bringing together those he cared for to celebrate and learn was David's way of life. It was natural, therefore, that Jewish law students found a place around his dinner table on Jewish holidays. It also made sense that he would feel the need to establish and direct the Hamline-Hebrew University Program, Conflict Resolution from Religious Traditions. The program, in which Ron Kronish has taught since its inception, brings together faculty and students from Minnesota, Israel and around the world. It continues under the auspices of Mitchell-Hamline School of Law and is directed by Mitchell-Hamline School of Law Professor Sharon Press.

This lecture is sponsored by Beth Jacob Congregation through the David Cobin Fund for Caring and co-sponsored by Mount Zion Temple, Talmud Torah of St Paul, and Hineni.

Orange Trees in Blue and White:

The Beginnings and Politics of Zionist Private Enterprise
 Wednesday, March 13, 7:30 - 9:00 p.m. at Mount Zion

People think of kibbutzim, socialist agricultural collectives, as the first Zionist agricultural settlements. But kibbutzim were preceded in the late 19th century by a small network of privately owned agricultural colonies like Petach Tikva and Zikhron Yaakov. How did these settlers think of themselves as the "first" Zionists, promoting an image of a Zionism they claimed was prior to and outside politics, one that continues to influence Israel today.

6:15 - 7:15 p.m. Food for Thought Discussions

Friday, September 14

Shabbat Shuvah, Sabbath of (Re)turning

Israeli Poetry of Mishkan HaNefesh

Read by Mount Zion Israeli Congregants

Connected to our Israel focus this year, and on Shabbat Shuvah, this session will feature beautiful poetry from Mishkan HaNefesh (our High Holy Day prayer book) written by Israeli Poets, and read by Israeli congregants. Come hear and discuss inspiring poetry, some in English and some in Hebrew, from the literary treasure trove that is our Mishkan HaNefesh.

Friday, October 12

Dialogue in a time of Hyper-Partisanship:
 Rediscovering Civic Engagement in 2018

Moderated by Larry Jacobs

Hubert Humphrey billed himself as the "happy warrior" who welcomed disagreement but insisted that colleagues from both parties refrain from being disagreeable. By contrast, American politics today is more divided than at any time since just after the Civil War. Many voters and political activists identify with their political parties with ferocious attachment and demand pure victories. Compromise has become a dirty word for some. And, too many citizens have lost interest in today's fractious politics while others seem content to observe from the sideline while occasionally writing checks and casting ballots.

We will have high-profile guests from different political parties join Larry for an engaging hour: What are the opportunities for working toward our shared hopes? And, how can we engage citizens to become engaged and part of building a civic culture of disagreeing without being disagreeable?

Larry Jacobs is the Walter F. and Joan Mondale Chair for Political Studies and director of the Center for the Study of Politics and Governance in the Hubert H. Humphrey School and the Department of Political Science at the University of Minnesota.

Friday, November 9

Judaica Roadshow***

Do you have an special item with a Jewish story to tell, or a story you'd like to know? Join us for this fun Food for Thought, in which Rabbi Spilker will add his insights to the stories behind congregants' Judaica items.
